RAP 1 (Nivla)

She had that pretty little face, pretty little smile
Pretty little waist, seeing all the while
All the pain in her eyes in the night when she cries
Now she can barely smile
Cuz she the baby mama, she dealing with the drama,
And her dude get down, like he Chris Brown
She feel like she Rihanna

Every time she try to leave, said he'd change and she believe him
She really think he love her, so she convinced she need him
I swear man, when I see him, if you dealing with his abuses
He every threaten your life, the heat gon' make him lose his!

CHORUS 2x - (Kashif)

RAP 2 (Drega)

you I don't mean to come between you and your man and all/
But you lookin' like the Cinderella to take to the ball/
And I know what you thinkin', I just say it to 'em all/
But what I've said right now, I've never said before this call/

See I just wanna show you a different way of life/
Where we pop vintage corks right to the highest heights/
Your man always drinking, getting into a bar fights/
He plays a little boy like Nancy Cartwright/

See I just wanna tell you that you special and I mean it/
But you messing with the wrong ones, while we mixing with this remix/
See I don't even get how you forgave him, when he cheated/
But its those kind of things that make a man more conceited/

Let me make this crystal clear, shorty I aint neva stoppin'/
Yo' man is not an option, he's more like a problem/
And you need to decide, it's either him or this/Cause Kashif already told you what he is/

BRIDGE - (Kashif)

I'll be the one to love and comfort you
Cuz you need me like I need you
